STRIKE UNSETTLED

The Conference With President Roosevelt Yesterday Fruitless.

Mine Operators Refuse to Submit to Arbitration and Issue Salty Statements.

MITCHELL WILLING TO STOP

Washington, Oct. 4.—There will be no call for an extra session of congress to deal with the coal strike situation at this stage. The president expressly stated in his appeal to the operators and representatives of the miners yesterday, that he did not act officially in calling them together. He has for the time being exhausted his resources. In his view the matter is again one with which the state of Pennsylvania should deal.

Hence great anthracite coal strike is as far from settlement as it ever was if the result of the conference between President Roosevelt, the coal operators and President Mitchell, representing the miners, be taken as any indication. The situation now reaches a gravity that is appalling and well nigh terrifying. The operators grimly hold to their determination not to recognize the union, and unless this is done the hope of settling the strike seems far distant.

The conference with President Roosevelt resulted in nothing. No agreement was reached and nothing looking to a future agreement seems in sight at present. There will be no more conferences with the president. President Mitchell told President Roosevelt and the coal operators that he was willing for the president of the United States to appoint a committee to adjust the differences without suggestion, and gave assurances that the miners would abide by the result, even if it was decided against them. This the coal operators refused absolutely to accede to and they made such a declaration in terms that could not be misunderstood.

President Roosevelt and the administration officials who have been in conference with him on this important matter feel deeply chagrined at the outcome. They had felt a degree of confidence that the differences could be amicably adjusted when the coal operators and mine officials came face to face. He appealed to them from a standpoint of patriotism and he saw this fail.

President Haer, of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, said among other things in his reply to the proposition made:

"We represent the owners of coal mines in Pennsylvania. There are from 15,000 to 20,000 men at work mining and preparing coal. They are abused, assaulted, injured and maltreated by the United Mine Workers. They can work only under the protection of armed guards. Thousands of other workmen are deterred from working by the intimidation, violence and crimes inaugurated by the United Mine Workers, over whom John Mitchell, whom you invited to meet you, is chief.

"When riot and anarchy, too great to be suppressed by the civil power occur, the governor of Pennsylvania is bound to call out the state troops to suppress it. He must fearlessly use the whole power of the state to protect life and property and to establish peace—not an armed truce, but the peace of the law which protects every man at work and going to and from work. He has sent troops to the coal regions. Gradually the power of the law is asserting itself. Unless encouraged by false hopes, order will soon be restored, and then we can mine coal to meet the public wants. If the power of Pennsylvania is in sufficient doubt to justify the reign of law, the constitution of the United States requires the president, when requested by the legislature and governor, to suppress domestic violence." You see there is a lawful way to secure coal for the public."

Other operators made statements along the same line.

Attorney Tom L. Orice and bride are expected back from Louisville today or tomorrow.

CAUGHT A LIVE WIRE

James Lowe, a Street Car Lineman, Gets a Violent Shock.

He Held to the Stay Wire and Completed the Circuit, Being Rescued by a Colored Helper.

HIS INJURIES NOT SERIOUS

James Lowe of Campbell street, a lineman in the employ of the Paducah street railway company, narrowly escaped a horrible death by electricity about 11:40 this morning.

Lowe had climbed upon a street car at Eleventh and Caldwell streets to repair a broken brace wire and had overlooked taking the proper precaution of letting go the stay wire while he caught hold of the trolley wire. He had the stay wire, which was trailing on the ground, in one hand and caught the trolley wire with the other hand. He was instantly doubled up and cried out in pain. "Boa wire" Williams, a colored helper, jerked him away and he fell to the ground below, sustaining severe bruises. He was slightly burned on the right hand, but the injuries are not serious. But for the timely action of the colored helper Lowe would probably have been shocked to death.

Dr. Frank Boyd, the company physician, was called and after an examination of Lowe's injuries found them not serious. He was taken to the Gilbert and Ripley drug store and later to his home on Campbell street.

GOOD RAINFALL

Nearly Three Inches in This Section Yesterday.

A Good Boating Stage of Water Now Expected By Steamboatmen.

The official rainfall for this section of the country was 2.6 inches since yesterday morning, and the fall seems to have been quite general. It is confidently expected that as a result there will be an immediate rise in the river which will give steamboatmen a good boating stage of water, and cause navigation to resume from one end of the rivers to the other.

There are now five feet on the gauge here and the water is coming up comparatively rapidly. A few more feet will float the City of Savannah, and twelve feet will be sufficient to please all river men.

The repairs on the packets and tow boats which have been laid up to take advantage of the low water for repairs and improvements, are being pushed in order to have them finished in time for the resumption of river traffic.

ALLEGES DESERTION.

W. F. Scott this afternoon filed a suit against S. J. Scott for divorce. The plaintiff states that the defendant deserted him and gives these his grounds for the divorce. They formerly lived in Ballard county and have been married since 1892.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Clearings, this week, $612,118
Same week last year, 501,706
Increase, $110,407
Business at the banks the past week was very heavy showing an increase over the same week last year of over 20 per cent.

Wholesale trade is very good in most all lines and this season will be one of the best in the history of local houses. Dry goods, groceries and whiskey lines have been especially active. The tobacco factories also report good bookings.

The local manufacturing concerns report excellent business, the Paducah Furniture Manufacturing Co., especially enjoying a good season. Their business is expanding more rapidly, probably, than any concern in Western Kentucky. One merchant in Arkansas was sending in an order for a car of stuff this week said, "It was very hard for us to determine who should have this order but we finally decided to give it to you believing that you would give us the best value for the price and also the quickest delivery." This certainly speaks well for the quality of Paducah goods and Paducah promptness in shipment.

Retail trade has opened up fine, all merchants reporting good business the past week. The millinery openings and the Rhodes-Burford opening attracted big crowds of shoppers.

The opening of the free rural delivery routes this week should prove a good thing for the local retailers, and the hustling merchants should build up a good mail order business.

Hundreds of Chicken Hawks.

Mr. John Davis, of the county, who resides on the Jacobs farm a short distance from the city, reports a most remarkable occurrence on his place day before yesterday.

He was at work about the house when he noticed a large flock of birds coming. They passed over his farm and there seemed fully ten thousand of them. A few of them began alighting from exhaustion and Mr. Davis, seeing that they were chicken hawks, went inside and secured his gun, and began shooting them. In a short time he had killed 27 and his little boy had killed four, but his shoulder had by this time become so sore from the rebound of the gun, which is an old timer, that he was forced to abandon the work.

Most of the hawks passed on over and were going south. Mr. Davis declares that he never saw hawks flying that way before, and that he didn't know there were that many of them in the whole world.

The most wonderful part of the story, however, is that immediately after the hawks had passed millions of butterflies came by in their wake, filling the air until the sky was darkened, thousands of them falling on the farm.

Mr. Davis is a well known and truthful man, and was in the city today exhibiting his shoulder and arm, bluekened by his excessive shooting at the hawks.

IS DOING WELL.

MR. E. D. GILLEN WILL HAVE ONE OF THE BIG COMPANIES.

Mr. Ed D. Gillen, a well known young lumberman, formerly with J. L. Kilgore, of Paducah, is here on a brief visit to his old friends. He is a member of the Reeves-Gillen Furniture company, of Texarkana, and has been located at Caruthersville, Mo. He is now on his way from the latter place to Texarkana on business.

Mr. Gillen is doing well, his many friends will be glad to learn and expects to have the biggest furniture company in the south before very long.

WILL BE PAID OUT SOON.

Frankfort, Oct. 4.—The money recently collected in Washington for the soldiers of the state guard who were mustered into the government service during the Spanish-American war will be paid out by the governor just as soon as the details can be arranged.

WILL MAKE THE RACE.

Barbourville, Oct. 4.—Judge J. D. Black denies that he will not make the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, though he is not yet ready to make the announcement of his candidacy.

UNTIL FRIDAY.

MARSHALL CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL NEXT WEEK.

Judge Hoshanda returned from Benton yesterday afternoon after having adjourned Marshall county circuit court until Friday. He will convene court there again Friday and will on Saturday adjourn for the term. There has been much business done and all three dockets have been cleared of cases. Judge Hoshanda gave the attorneys until Friday to make orders and draw up judgments, etc., and court has practically adjourned.

JOHN W. GATES ILL.

London, Oct. 4.—John W. Gates has returned from the Continent in very poor health. He has given up his projected motor tour of England and Ireland and will sail for home Wednesday next.

BOLIVIAN REVOLUTION FAILS.

Lima, Peru, Oct. 4.—Advises received here from Bolivia say that a revolutionary movement in favor of the first vice president of that republic, Lucio Perez Velasco, has been frustrated.

Mrs. J. D. Sigler of Louisville returned home at noon after a visit to friends and relatives in the city.

LUCAS LOST TWO

And the Other Case Will Also Probably be Dismissed.

Paducah Auditor's Agent Seems to be Up Against It in His Big Suits.

UNION DEPOT SUIT DISMISSED

The state board of valuation and assessment at Frankfort has just heard three motions filed by Revenue Agent Frank A. Lucas of Paducah against the Illinois Central Railroad company, and dismissed two of them and took the other under consideration. The two which were dismissed were for the assessment, for franchise tax purposes, of the Oulro Bridge company and of the Paducah Union Depot company. The board decided that these companies had been included in the franchise assessment of the Illinois Central company.

The third and most important motion was to compel the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans Railroad company, which owns all of the lines in Kentucky which are operated by the Illinois Central company, to pay a franchise tax as lessor to the Illinois Central company for nine years back, amounting to many thousand dollars. Mr. Lucas' position in the matter is that the O. St. L. and N. O. company exercises the right of property holder in the state the same as does the operator of its lines of road. The matter will be heard by the board after notice to the company.

The O. St. L. and N. O. company is but a part of the Illinois Central company. Under its charter granted by the state of Illinois the Illinois Central company cannot own any lines outside of that state, and it operates in Kentucky through the O. St. L. and N. O. company, which is owned by the same stockholders. It is not thought that the state board will sustain Mr. Lucas' motion.

Mr. Lucas is losing most of his suits it seems, and only recently lost one in the county court here against the Ayer-Lord Tie company in which an effort was made to force it to pay taxes here on boats already assessed in Ohio.

A NEW TRIAL

Hardee Beasley Will be Tried Next Time at Jackson.

He Will be Released on Bail at Tiptonville, Tenn.

Hardee Beasley of Fulton, according to reports which reached the city this morning from Fulton, has been granted a new trial for killing Dick Darnell at Tiptonville, Tenn., some time ago, and has also secured a change of venue to Jackson, Tenn., and is out on bond. He was tried last week at Tiptonville and given five years. The verdict was a great surprise, as the young man from Fulton had been made to leave Tiptonville by Darnell on account of a misunderstanding over a telephone conversation with his wife, and had returned to rent some property when they met in a drug store and Darnell was killed. He had threatened to kill Beasley, and the killing was generally regarded as justifiable.

It is claimed that the verdict resulted from feeling in favor of Darnell, who had killed several men, if rumors are correct, and had the whole community blinded. If Darnell didn't want a man to live in Tiptonville the man had to move, or his friends would do it on each side of him later on, was a popular belief, and everybody was afraid of him.

It is thought that Beasley will now secure a prompt acquittal, having secured a change of venue to a place outside of the Darnell stronghold.

Mr. Charles E. Curtis, of St. Louis, is a guest of his father-in-law, Mr. John Burnett, of North Fifth.

PAT WAS PENITENT

He Wanted to Correct His Statements and Was Allowed to.

Longshoreman Surprised a Long Way From Home By Officer Tolbert.

LEROY WAS RECOGNIZED

Pat Moore, colored, who had been in jail for the past week or two for false swearing, this morning was brought into police court and told Judge Sanders that he had done wrong and was sorry for it, and wanted to correct his statements. Pat was a witness in a breach of the peace case between two negroes at a North Side saloon, and it developed that the trouble was over a crap game. Pat swore he didn't remember who was there playing so he was put in jail to ripen. He ripened this morning, and told the whole thing. In fact he fairly bubbled over with information, and the names he gave of gamblers will either depopulate the colored quarters or gladly swell the chain gang. The false swearing warrant was dismissed and Pat was released and about a hush of warrants was issued for crap shooters.

C. E. McDonald is the name of an intelligent Englishman with sorrel whiskers who was arrested last night by Officer Tolbert in a box car. He appears to be quite a young man, and is very intelligent. He said his only permanent residence in America was at Buffalo, where he is a longshoreman, or one who helps load and unload vessels. The principal difference between a longshoreman and a roustabout is that one goes with the vessel and other remains on shore. McDonald had to get into the car out of the rain, and the court dismissed the case. He seems to have a pretty good idea of the law and said that if the court had not dismissed the case he should have demanded the presence of the nearest English consul, which every Englishman has a right to do. He said that Americans away from home do not appear to know their rights, but that every Englishman does and that he will demand the consul in nine times out of ten when arrested, and has a right to his appearance in court. He said under the constitution no one can be arrested except on a warrant, unless the officer sees the commission of the offense. He was too slick, so he was allowed to leave town after declining to tell why he was so far from the coast.

The case against George Leroy, the young painter charged with stealing a diamond ring from Mr. Peter Burnett's, was called and Leroy was held to answer. While the evidence against him is sufficient to hold, it was deemed too weak to justify his being required to give bond so he was released on his own recognizance.

The case against Hattie Moore, the coke fiend, was not disposed of, as the officers do not know what to do with her unless it is to turn her loose and let her dissipate herself to death. She is the woman found naked night before last.

MYSTERIOUS CASE.

FULTON PEOPLE EXCITED OVER THE FINDING OF BLOOD.

Fulton has been aroused to a great state of excitement over the finding of blood that cannot be accounted for.

This morning early Watchman Frank Walker, whose boat is on the street occupied by the new Meadow hotel, found several large pools of blood on the office floor and after a hasty examination found the blood to have been spattered all about and trailed up stairs and is not occupied. To the certain knowledge of Watchman Walker there has been no one about the building and last night everything was in the best of condition. The people can not account for the blood and think that some one has been murdered there. The blood was fresh and apparently had not been spilled long.

Mr. J. B. Alvey arrived from Mayfield at noon today.

THEATRICAL WORLD.

Coming attractions at The Kentucky:

Tonight: French's New Sensation; Wednesday matinee and night, L. J. Carter's 11th Hour; Thursday night, "The Two Merry Tramps;" Friday, Helen Grantly in "Her Lord and Master;" Monday night, October 13, "Down By the Sea."

"Down in Hopkins" was produced to a small audience at The Kentucky last night. The inclement weather doubtless prevented a large crowd, but the company rang up and gave the play nevertheless. The story of "Down in Hopkins" was written by D. A. Powers, a Louisville newspaper man who plays the heavy role. It is a story of the troubles encountered by President J. D. Wood, of the Mine Workers' union, in Hopkins county in trying to organize the miners. A love story runs through the piece, and the hero, is a young miner who gives up a good job because of his sentiments. Mr. Frank Kennedy, who was leading man with the Anna Marvin Stock here early in the season, plays the part. Mr. H. J. Foppe, of Paducah, has a character part as "Andy Pieplant," and his work is good. J. D. Wood, the union organizer himself, plays his own character, and received a handsome floral offering last night. "Down in Hopkins" has just started out, and will run smoother in time. Some new people will be put on at Evansville, where the company went from here, to strengthen the company.

It has been claimed and with apparent good reason that of the new plays produced this season, one of the most remarkable and strongest characters has been created by Mr. Hal Reid in his latest play, "At the Old Cross Roads." Mr. Arthur C. Alston, who has delighted our theater patrons more than once with his presentation of the perennially popular "Tennessee's Pardner," purchased the play, and has given it an elaborate scenic environment, which was made possible by the scenes being laid around the picturesque Natchez, Miss., country. "At the Old Cross Roads" is neither a Yankee rural drama with its grossly exaggerated types of character, nor a play dealing with the hackneyed southern war theme; it is simply a story of intense human heart interest, told in straightforward fashion that makes it all the more dramatic. To tell in advance the story of the play of "Pardner's" surprising life, would lose force and interest in the drama before its initial presentation here. Estha Williams who played "Nottie Rice" in "Tennessee's Pardner," essays the role of "Pardner" the october. At The Kentucky shortly.

A most enjoyable event of the local theatrical season will be the production shortly of the sensational melodrama, "A Gambler's Daughter," a new play that has met with great popular success this year. It will be produced here by a company of the highest standard to be obtained, headed by the talented and clever leading woman, Miss Miriam Shelby, who, although still a young woman, has attained a front rank in her profession and is now a decided favorite. "A Gambler's Daughter" tells a thoroughly modern up-to-date story of Chicago life, and is so exciting that the audience is kept in a constant state of thrills from beginning to end. At appropriate stages of the performance some clever songs and specialties are introduced, and there is enough of comedy to enliven the more serious and stirring features of the drama. "A Gambler's Daughter" will undoubtedly receive an enthusiastic welcome here as it has elsewhere.

The public has placed the stamp of approval upon "Her Lord and Master," which will be presented here by Miss Helen Grantly next Friday night at The Kentucky. It is unusual to see a comedy with a dignified story that so continually amuses as this does. Many of the situations are diverting, especially those that put in contrast the manners of the strongly differing classes of persons involved while there is no lack of the serious interest that all good comedy must possess. Particularly effective is the return of the young wife after her adventure, against the wish of her husband, who, to enforce discipline has ordered the doors of his ancestral mansion locked against her at midnight. In the scene of opposition that follows, Miss Grantly and Mr. Lionel Adams are seen to excellent advantage; in fact throughout the play they do the best work that has been seen here this season.

It is seldom that our theater goes have an opportunity of witnessing a production of a farce comedy that contains as many pleasing features as contained in Wood and Ward's jolly, jingling satire, "The Two Merry Tramps," which comes to The Kentucky Thursday night. The play is a decided novelty and is presented by an unusually clever company, including Wood and Ward, the Murray Sisters, Miss Oleo Boore, Bessie Bennett, the Hasty Brothers, J. N. Rutherford, Jr., Billy A. Grim, and other well known farceurs, all of whom introduce specialties of the latest sort, the individual and concerted musical numbers being the leading features of the performance. The company carries all of its own scenery and effects, requiring none of the house scenery, whatever.

"The 11th Hour," which will appear at The Kentucky Wednesday matinee and night, is one of the most complete traveling companies on the road, carrying all their own special scenery which was designed and made by Messrs. Buhler and Mann, the well known scenic artists of Chicago. One scene alone costs $5,000, being the reproduction of the magnificent drawing room of a Chicago millionaire. To get as near the original as possible, photographs were taken by the kind permission of the owner, and thus all details were copied even to the hand-some vases and bric-a-brac. The play has met with great success in other cities and no doubt will score one while at The Kentucky.

As, Sousa goes to Europe again in December, he will make his customary concert tour during the fall instead of winter as in previous years. This will be the 21st semi-annual tour of the Sousa band, which is just celebrating its tenth birthday, and will cover 125 of the principal towns from Boston to San Francisco, from Minneapolis to El Paso. The great band has been playing continuously since early in January, and was never in a higher state of discipline or artistic efficiency. Mr. Sousa has prepared an attractive series of programs for this tour and will present two new soloists. The band will be heard here at The Kentucky November 18.

The Lee Turner "Quarterhouse" company, billed for Paducah today, and from which nothing could be heard has gone to pieces. Its last appearance was at Tallahoma, Tenn., a few nights ago. Its route was so broken by opposition, one city after passing an ordinance to keep him out, that the tour was abandoned, and the members of the company have gone to Louisville, and from there return to their respective homes.

George Ade's satire, "The Sultan of Sulu," the music of which was provided by Alfred G. Watshall, is merrily breaking records all along the line of its route. In Kansas City the records which existed for comic opera performances were knocked into smithereens and so it has been in all of the cities which the company has played en route to St. Paul and Minneapolis.

It is stated that there are more pretty girls in "The Sultan of Sulu" company than in to be found in any comic organization in the country. The remarkable part of it all is that fully 98 per cent. of the girls are from the west and many of them are on the stage for the first time in their lives.

Gertrude Kenyonson has made a great success in Boston with her staging of Marguerite in "Fanny." Miss Kenyonson sings without any apparent effort, has none of the affectations or mannerisms which so many vocalists employ; Miss Kenyonson is simplicity itself in all that she does.

"Peggy from Paris," George Ade's latest near future, will be one of the big successes of the season. The plot is a novel one, taking the auditor from Hickory Creek, Ind., to Paris and return via New York city.

Helen Ten Brock, the well known "Matinee Girl" and general chronicler of events, is at present doing special work for Henry W. Savage's grand English Opera company.

INDICTED FOR MURDER.

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 4—The grand jury has returned an indictment against Ike Brannon, of East Metropolis, for murder. Brannon killed a fellow workman last spring by the name of Will Ferrell while they were at work at the box factory. Ferrell was struck over the head with a maul handle and the skull fractured from the effects of which he died several hours later.

At the coroner's inquest a great many witnesses were examined and it was recommended that Brannon be held without bail to await the action of the grand jury. Circuit court was in session at the time and Brannon was admitted on bail, which he promptly gave. At the following term of court the grand jury inquired into the case but did not return an indictment. However the case was taken up again this term and an indictment was the result.

BIG RAILROAD SUIT ON TRIAL.

Metropolis, Oct. 4—In the circuit court a suit of more than usual prominence has been under way, that of Elizabeth Whalen vs. the Illinois Central railroad.

John Whalen, husband of the lady, while at work in the yards at Brookport one morning last spring was caught between two cars while making a coupling and killed.

Mrs. Whalen is suing for $25,000.

NO GRAVEYARD

BUT THAT'S WHAT IT LOOKED LIKE TO THE YOUTH.

Yesterday afternoon as the Illinois Central gardener was working among the depot flower beds, a country youth approached and asked: "Is this the railroad graveyard?" He was told that it was not and asked why he thought so. He replied that he supposed it was as there were a good many flowers there and "it looked like they might be planted over dead men's graves."

This is the first instance where the depot lawn has been taken for a graveyard but that it was, is not surprising as queerer things happen about the depot daily, the result of ignorance.

The regular October term of fiscal court convenes Tuesday morning at the court house, but the session promises to be quite dull, as there are no matters of importance to be considered. All the elections have been held and all questions of public interest, with perhaps few exceptions, disposed of earlier in the year.

Feel cold shiverings, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache, and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work in cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 50c at DuBois, Kelb and Co.

INDIANA STATE OFFICIALS ADOPT SECRET METHODS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4—An afternoon paper says: "It is said at the State house that the governor and attorney general have laid plans for stopping whitecapping that will result in a great sensation should another whitecapping be attempted in certain quarters. What the plans of the state officers are is being kept a secret, and it is said the plan will hardly come to light until some whitecappers are caught."

A BRILLIANT WEDDING AND RECEPTION.

October was ushered in by a notable social event, to which Society has looked forward for some time. The wedding of Miss Addie Helen Hart and Mr. James Denis Moequot, at the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, was a very charming occasion and was witnessed by a large and fashionable crowd. The church was artistically decorated, palms, vines and white chrysanthemums being used in graceful profusion. The many handsome toilettes in evidence added to the brilliancy of the scene.

The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. W. E. Cave, D.D., and the wedding march was delightfully rendered by Prof. Harry Gilbert at the organ, accompanied by Miss Aline Bagby on the violin. The attendants were: Mrs. Henry Weissinger, sister of the bride, matron of honor; Miss Mary Bell Maxwell of Marion, Ky., and Miss Josephine Cooke of the city, bridesmaids; Mr. Henry Weissinger of Louisville, the best man; Mr. Elson Hart and Mr. David Flournoy, groomsmen; Dr. J. Q. Taylor, Mr. Charles Rieko, Mr. Richard Rudy and Mr. Abram Wolf, ushers.

The bride looked very lovely in a white crepe de chine over white tulle dress. She carried lilies of the valley. The matron of honor was very charming in a cream velvet and tulle costume and hat, and American beauty roses. The bridesmaids wore pretty gowns of cream tulle and picture hats, and carried American beauty roses.

An elegant reception by Mr. and Mrs. George O. Hart at the Hart home on West Jefferson street followed the wedding, and was a most delightful occasion. The house was charmingly decorated in plants and flowers, each room being especially attractive. Mr. and Mrs. Hart were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Moequot and bridal party, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hart, Mrs. Mary Harris, Mrs. Florence Moequot, Mrs. Charles Hinkle, Mrs. Louis Rieko and Mrs. W. E. Cave.

Mrs. Mary Watson, Miss Ruth Well, Miss Myrtle Decker and Miss Helen Decker presided over the dining room, where a delightful course luncheon was served.

A large number of guests called during the hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Moequot left at 6 o'clock for an extended bridal trip to New Orleans, New York and Washington City.

MR. AND MRS. HARRIS

RANKIN ENTERTAIN

A very charming function was the reception-cottillion given by Mr. and Mrs. Harris Rankin at the Palmer house on Friday evening. The reception was from 8:30 to 9:30 and Mr.

and Mrs. Rankin were assisted in receiving by Dr. and Mrs. Victor Voris, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilbert, Miss Mary Belle Maxwell, of Marion, Ky., Miss Laura Sanders, Miss Martha Davis, Miss Minnie Terrell, Miss Hattie Terrell, Miss Ruth Well, Miss Martha Leech; Messrs. Herbert Hawkins, John Sherwin, Elson Hart, Edwin Wilson, Saunders Fowler, Frank Boone, Evert Thompson. The parlors of the Palmer were crowded with guests and presented a most attractive appearance.

The cottillion was danced later, and was led by Mr. and Mrs. Cook Husbands, Mr. Wallace Weil and Miss Martha Leech.

A delightful two course luncheon was artistically served, before the cottillion.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin's guest list was quite an extensive one, and the occasion was one of the most delightful in Paducah's list of notable entertainments.

HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS BENEFIT.

A large audience was at The Kentucky on Tuesday evening to witness the dramatic paraphrase of Tennessee's "Dream of Fair Women" for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless. Some of Paducah's best amateur talent assisted in the presentation, and the whole affair was well staged.

The different historic personages were very appropriately represented by a number of Paducah's fair women. A number of clever specialties in song and dance were well carried out by various local talent. The children were particularly captivating and were a charming feature of what was a most pleasing entertainment.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Lillian Haggard and Mr. William Crow were married on Wednesday morning at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Joseph Miller of South Sixth street. Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony. There were no attendants and only the immediate friends and relatives were present. The bride is very pretty and popular and the groom is the deputy marshal of Paducah and a young man with many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Crow left at noon for St. Louis and Chicago. On their return they will reside on South Sixth street.

MISS BAGBY TO LEAVE

FOR NEW YORK

Miss Aline Bagby, one of Paducah's most charming and gifted young ladies, will leave next Saturday for New York city. She will enter the American Academy of Dramatic Art there and will remain two years studying for the stage. Miss Bagby is not only talented and versatile, but is ambitious, and will be satisfied with nothing below the highest. She will be much missed in Paducah's social life, but her friends predict for her the achievement of her ideals, and will give her an ovation when she comes home.

A COMPLEMENTARY DANCE.

A very enjoyable dance was given at the Knights of Pythias hall on Wednesday evening by a number of young men who formerly composed the Grecian club. It was in honor of Miss Sallie Kennett of Huntington, W. Va., who is the guest of Mrs. N. P. Gardner of West Jefferson street. The occasion was most pleasant and was largely attended.

CHURCH RECEPTION.

A reception will be given in the parlors of the Broadway Methodist church next Tuesday evening by the Junior Warden and Woman's Foreign Missionary societies of that church. It is purely a social affair and will be a most pleasant occasion. Light refreshments will be served the guests.

ENJOYABLE EUCHE PARTY.

Miss Mary Mix and Miss Emma Mix entertained very delightfully at euchre at their home on South Fourth street on Friday evening. A number of guests were present and the evening was most pleasantly spent. Delicious refreshments were served after the game.

NUT SCRAMBLE.

There will be a boys' social at the Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening of next week that promises to be a most interesting and largely attended affair. It will be a nut scramble.

CLUBBING.

The Delphic club will hold its first meeting of this season with Miss Luella Rohon on North Ninth street, Tuesday morning. An attractive program in Italian literature has been prepared for the year's study, and the members are anticipating a delightful winter.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet on the 14th instead of the 7th, which is the regular time, on account of the delegates having to attend the state meeting at Newport on the 8th. The meeting will be with Mrs. Louise Maxwell on West Broadway.

The Musical club, which did such interesting work last winter, is planning to reorganize very soon. This club is composed of Paducah's leading musical talent and is very pleasant and congenial socially.

The Magazine club will have its opening meeting with Mrs. Bradford Clarke on West Jefferson street on Thursday afternoon.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet with Mrs. M. B. Nash on North Ninth street, Tuesday afternoon.

UNIFORM GRADE.

THE MATTER OF ESTABLISHING ONE TO COME UP MONDAY.

Among the things to come up in the council meeting Monday night will be the matter of having an established grade for Paducah's future improvements. At present no little trouble is occasioned by the effort to take Broadway as the established grade for street and paving improvements, and it is apparent to a number of the councilmen that it will not do, and they will seek to have the city adopt some uniform grade that will be continuous and the standard by which all future improvements are made.

The matter of having the city accumulate about 1,000 yards of gravel on lots in the city to be used on the streets this winter will also come up.

LOOKS LIKE A WALKOVER.

DR. ROBERT RIVERS THE ONLY CANDIDATE FOR CITY PHYSICIAN.

The council will probably elect a successor to City Physician Coyle Monday night and so far as is known Dr. Robert Rivers, who is holding the place temporarily, will be elected. He is an energetic and attentive young man, and is a good one for the place.

NO EXPLANATION YET.

Several days ago The Sun called attention to the fact that there was an apparent discrepancy of about $3.
000 in the reports of the auditor and treasurer and that of the finance committee of the general council.
No explanation has since been made by anyone and no official denial offered. It is customary when public officers have any defense to make in a case like this to make it, and if there is any explanation as to why the reports do not agree, or it can be shown that the reports do agree, The Sun will be glad to give the public the benefit of it.

If there is none, however, The Sun is not going to be bluffed into silence by any official connected with the administration, whether he be desper-ado or windbag. The people are entitled to have competent, sober, careful and peaceable officials, and if they haven't them they have a right to know it, so steps can be taken to get them.

The Sun desires to do no one an injustice, nor to criticize any official except as an official, but the public is anxious to hear why there is such a discrepancy in the reports named.

It is understood some of the gang have been doing some tall figuring since the publication a week ago.
They have also been doing some tall talking, but if they would figure more and talk less they would probably find the mistake quicker.

There is nothing that shows Paducah's rapid growth plainer than the increase in postoffice receipts. They are growing at the rate of several thousand dollars a year, and within six months will be large enough to place Paducah's postoffice in the first class, among those of all the big cities. The rural free delivery, also,
is going to help increase the receipts,
by diverting much of the small business, that now goes to the country postoffices, into the local office. If anyone wants to fully appreciate Paducah's rapid strides ahead, he should watch the steady increase in bank clearings and postoffice receipts.

parently trying to sponge every enterprise in the state on every conceivable pretext, are not meeting with much

The Human Lottery

"Ah, if only I were beautiful

Many a forlorn maid has said this as she looked into the mirror. For beauty women have sacrificed home, love and friends. It is the one possession in the lottery of human life which women would not refuse.

BRADFIELD'S Female Regulator

For young girls on the threshold of womanhood, has been invaluable. When they become pale and languid, the eyes dull, aching head, feet and hands cold, appetite gone or abnormal, obstructed periods and painful menses, and their system generally run down, they need building up, and their blood needs cleansing.

Bradfield's Female Regulator for women is particularly valuable and useful owing to its tonic properties to build up the system, and as a regulator of the menstrual flow. Painful, obstructed and suppressed menstruation permanently relieved and all diseases peculiar to the genital organs are cured by it.

Regulator clears the complexion, brightens the eye, sharpens the appetite, removes muddy and blotched conditions of the skin and cures sick headaches to a certainty by removing the cause.

success. They are getting turned down right along. We believe in every concern paying its just taxes, but we don't believe in them being pulled and hauled around and ruthlessly robbed by a lot of politicians who are out solely for the commissions.

The report of a circus trust was only another Democratic campaign story concocted to make the unthinking believe that everything in creation, even to circuses and undertakers, was forming a trust. The only ground for the publication was the fact that the three largest shows, for mutual protection, agreed not to have conflicting dates in their tours of the country. This was the "trust."

Senator Fairbanks recently opened the campaign in Indiana by a splendid speech in which he outlined the policy of the administration in a most able and convincing manner. Senator Fairbanks is one of the big men of the country and has no superiors.
Some of these days, when Indiana desires to offer a candidate for the presidency, Senator Fairbanks will be found in the front ranks.

The Sun is the only paper in Paducah that keeps the public informed about the workings of the gang in office. A few officials who have lost the good will of the other papers occasionally get a little run against the grain, but some of those who need it most seem to stand in and never get any of it.

Only one thing can hold Paducah back, and that is to keep the same kind of men in office that we have now.
Get a new deal—infuse new blood into our municipal bodies, and the impetus to progress and improvement will be wonderful.

headstrong young ruler after all.

tory in every congressional district

MUD LARKS

The Foot-Ball Game Yesterday Was a Remarkable Contest.

The Boys Measured Strength in Mud and Water—Result Was a Tie.

The football game between the South
Kentucky college team, of Hopkinsville, and Mr. Henry Rudy's team, of the city, was played yesterday afternoon, as advertised and the game was perhaps the most remarkable ever played in this section.

The grounds were soft and the rain falling fast, converting the field into several miniature ponds. Every time a start would be made the players seemed to head directly for the mud holes and down into the mire they would fall, dozens piling on one man in many instances. There was a fair crowd out to witness the game and some little enthusiasm was manifested when the local team tied the score in the last half.

Each half was played in 10 minutes with a 10 minute intermission. Messrs.
Frank Davis, and Gordon Itcan, of the Paducah team, were injured in the forepart of the game. Head had an ankle twisted and Davis a leg bruised. In the first half Young made a touchdown for the Hopkinsville team, and in the last half Rudy, for the home team, duplicated the performance and tied the score. Each side missed the goal in the kick. The score stood 5 to 5 in the roundup, and another game will be played in about two weeks to settle the strength of the teams.

The Hopkinsville boys returned home at 1:20 this morning and will be ready to meet the home boys again at the latter's will.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Enrollment Shows a Gratifying Increase Over Last Year.

The Total Is 234 Increase—Schools to Attend the Laying of Corner Stone.

WILL BE DISMISSED EARLY

Superintendent C. B. Hatfield, of the public schools, this morning completed a report of the enrollment since the schools were opened in September, and the close of the month was marked by an increase of 234 pupils. The total enrollment on the last day of September was 2811, 2040 white and 771 colored, as against a total of 2577 for the same month last year. This is an increase of 234 pupils, 191 of whom are white and 43 colored.

Needless to say Superintendent Hatfield is greatly pleased with the progress of the schools and the steady increase in attendance shows that they are being fully appreciated.

Monday afternoon the schools will meet as usual and let out in order that all the pupils may attend the laying of the cornerstone of the Carnegie library. It is desired that they all go, and an effort will be made to have the largest representation at a public ceremony of this kind in the history of the public schools.

The order of dismissal was made by the president of the board of education and superintendent of the schools.

TRUE ARMOR.

PROPER FOOD DEFENDS AGAINST DISEASE.

There is an assayer and chemist in Roetta, Colo., Mr. C. Waelten, who shows by actual every day demonstration that scientific food will make a man young again. He says:

"The question of proper food which will assimilate and protect the system from loss and waste of brain and muscle, becomes a serious one when man advances to my age of past 68. I am continually under a brain and muscle strain which for the last 35 years were upon me seriously. My digestion became impaired and my whole system weak. I saw Grape Nuts in a grocery store, and bought a box. I tested it in my laboratory and found it correct according to your declaration of its substances in proportion with the phosphates intact.

"I made it my principal food and gained in one year eighteen pounds in weight, and had the pleasure of seeing my indigestion leave entirely. After a year and a half of its use, I feel 20 years younger and am as strong and supple as I never was before during the last decade. I simply have found the true armor which is defending my body against disease and withering age.

"I find it of advantage in field work and when prospecting in the mountains. When I go out upon geodetic expeditions, I take a quantity of Grape Nuts along with me. This abolishes cumbersome baggage and food cooking utensils. A little sugar, a can of condensed milk, my Grape Nuts and I have my food in a closely condensed form, not weighing over 4 pounds to carry and I never get hungry. Concentrated re-agents are the most effective in all chemical operations, and Grape Nuts are the re-agents that keep the body's laboratory, the stomach, in perfect working order. Your product is perfect."

WITH THE SICK.

Prosecuting Attorney Jesse M. Gilbert is still too ill to be at his office.

Capt. Joe Johnson continues precariously ill at his home on Clark street.

Mr. Irvin S. Cobb, editor of the News-Democrat, is quite ill from tonsillitis, and last night his condition was quite serious. Today he is improved slightly.

Assistant Fire Chief Wm. E. Angustus is back from the county, and is able to be down town for the first time in some time. His many friends are pleased to note his improvement.

DEATH AT EPPERSON.

Mrs. Jennie Roach, aged 33, the wife of Mr. J. B. Roach of Epperson, died this morning of consumption and will tomorrow be buried at the Rothel cemetery in Marshall county.

UNIFORM INCREASE.

ENGINEERS OF WESTERN ROADS MEETING IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 4.—Representatives of the local division of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for the Chicago and Alton road are in Chicago to attend a secret meeting of engineers for all of the roads of the west. The sessions are being held behind closed doors. The object of the gathering is to formulate a demand for a uniform increase in wages of 10 per cent.

The meeting of the committee, if it can be so called, was ordered by the recent national convention of engineers at Norfolk, Va., where a long discussion upon the question was held. It was argued that engines and cars had increased in size and tonnage hauled had doubled of late years, yet there had been no increase in the rate of wages. The engineers have decided to ask for a proportionate increase in their pay, and in a few days the various railroad presidents will be given the petition for their consideration.

It is given out here that the officials have been prepared for such a demand, and that it will be refused. They admit that equipment and tonnage hauled have increased in size, but say that rates have fallen to such an extent as to keep the earnings at a figure lower than in previous years.

MANY UMBRELLAS STOLEN.

A large number of umbrellas were stolen throughout the city last night. It seems there were thieves who did nothing but wander about and take every umbrella left on the porch or within sight. Captain Henry Bailey was notified of quite a number of them, but none of the thieves has yet been caught. At Rev. J. O. Reid's three were taken and at Mr. R. R. Sutherland's a fine lady's umbrella was taken and a common cotton one left in its place.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at Du Bois, Kolb and Co.

HACK HORSE GETS FESTIVE.

A hack horse driven by "Bnd" Barry ran away this morning from the N., O. and St. L. depot back towards the Palmer house and at Fifth and Court was stopped. The animal had taken a kicking fit and was kicking high above the dashboard. A drummer was inside, but escaped injury. Little damage was done and the horse was soon under control.

INJUNCTION ON TUESDAY.

The injunction suit of Owen Bros. against the Illinois Central railroad is set for a hearing Tuesday before Circuit Judge Hunsbards. The only question to be heard at present is that of a temporary injunction restraining the company from running its transfer boat between Paducah and Brookport. This is the case in which Owen Bros. sue for $160,000 for infringement on ferry privileges.

BLACK ROCK

By RALPH CONNOR

"You can't understand this, but I men who have lived so long. I mountains that they have forgotten what a baby looks like, who have had experience of humanity only in its roughest, foulest form, this little, white, sweet and clean, was like an angel fresh from heaven, the one link in all that black chain that bound them to what was purest and best in their past. "And to see the mother and her baby handle the miners—oh, it was all beautiful beyond words! I shall never forget the shock I got one night when I found Old Ricketts nursing the baby. A drunken old beast he was, but there he was, sitting, sober enough, nuzzling extraordinary faces at the baby, who was grabbing at his nose and whiskers and cooing in blissful delight. Poor Old Ricketts looked as if he had been caught stealing and, muttering something about having to go, gazed wildly round for some place in which to lay the baby, when in came the mother saying in her own sweet, frank way: 'Oh, Mr. Ricketts—she didn't find out till afterward his name was Shaw—would you mind keeping her just a little longer? I shall be back in a few minutes.' And Old Ricketts guessed he could wait.

"But in six months mother and baby between them transformed Old Ricketts into Mr. Shaw, fire boss of the mines, and then, in the evenings, when she would be singing her baby to sleep, the little shop would be full of miners, listening in dead silence to the baby songs and the English songs and the Scotch songs she poured forth without stint, for she sang more for them than for her baby. No wonder they adored her. She was so bright, so gay, that she brought light with her when she went into the camp, into the pits, for she went down to see the men work, or into a sick miner's shack, and many a man, lonely and sick for home or wife or baby or mother, found in that back room cheer and comfort and courage, and to many a poor broken wretch that room became, as one miner put it, 'the anteroom to heaven!'

Mr. Craig paused, and I waited. Then he went on slowly:

"For a year and a half that was the happiest home in all the world till one day—"

He put his face in his hands and shuddered.

"I don't think I can ever forget the awful horror of that bright fall afternoon when Old Ricketts came breathless to me and gasped, 'Come, for the dear Lord's sake!' and I rushed after him. At the mouth of the shaft lay three men dead. One was Lewis Mavor. He had gone down to superintend the running of a new drift. The two men, half drunk with Slavin's whisky, set off a shot prematurely, to their own and Mavor's destruction. They were badly burned, but his face was untouched. A miner was sponging off the bloody froth oozing from his lips. The others were standing about waiting for me to speak, but I could find no word, for my heart was sick, thinking, as they were, of the young mother and her baby waiting at home. So I stood, looking stupidly from one to the other, trying to find some reason, coward that I was, why another should bear the news rather than I, and while we stood there, looking at one another in fear, there broke upon us the sound of a voice mounting high above the hush tops, singing:

"Will ye no' come back again? Will ye no' come back again? Better lo'd ye canna be— Will ye no' come back again?"

"A strange terror seized me. Instinctively the men closed up in front of the body and stood in silence. Nearer and nearer came the clear, sweet voice, ringing like a silver bell up the steep:

"Sweet the lay-rock's note and lang, Little widdy up the glen, But ye lae me he sings ae sang, Will ye no' come back again?"

"Before the verse was finished Old Ricketts had dropped on his knees, sobbing out brokenly, 'O God, O God, have pity, have pity, have pity!' and every man took off his hat. And still the voice came nearer, singing so brightly the refrain:

"Will ye no' come back again?"

"It became unbearable. Old Ricketts sprang suddenly to his feet and, gripping me by the arm, said piteously: 'Oh, go to her! For heaven's sake, go to her!'

"I next remember standing in her path and seeing her holding out her hands full of red lilies, crying out: 'Are they not lovely? Lewis is so fond of them!'

"With the promise of much finer ones I turned her down a path toward the river, talking I know not what folly till her great eyes grew grave, then anxious, and my tongue stammered and became silent. Then, laying her hand upon my arm, she said, with gentle sweetness:

"Tell me your trouble, Mr. Craig, and I knew my ngyr had come, and I burst out:

"Oh, if it were only mine!"

"She turned quite white, and, with her deep eyes—you've noticed her eyes—drawing the truth out of mine, she said:

"Oh, Mr. Craig, and my ha—"

"I waited, thinking with what words to begin. She put one hand to her heart and with the other caught a little poplar tree that shivered under her grasp and said, with white lips, but even more gently:

"Tell me!"

"I wondered at my voice being so steady as I said:

"Mrs. Mavor, God will help you and your baby. There has been an accident, and it is all over."

"She was a miner's wife, and there was no need for more. I could see the pattern of the sunlight falling through the trees upon the grass. I could hear the murmur of the river and the cry of the catbird in the bushes, but we seemed to be in a strange and unreal world. Suddenly she stretched out her hands to me and with a little moan said:

"Take me to him!"

"Sit down for a moment or two," I entreated.

"No, no; I am quite ready. See," she added quietly; "I am quite strong."

"I set off by a short cut leading to her home, hoping the men would be there ahead of me; but, passing me, she walked swiftly through the trees, and I followed in fear. As we came near the main path I heard the sound of feet, and I tried to stop her, but she, too, had heard and knew.

"Oh, let me go!" she said piteously. "You need not fear."

"And I had not the heart to stop her. In a little opening among the pines we met the bearers. When the men saw her, they laid their burden gently down upon the carpet of yellow pine needles, and then, for they had the hearts of true men in them, they went away into the bushes and left her alone with the dead. She went swiftly to his side, making no cry; but, kneeling beside him, she stroked his face and hands and touched his curls with her fingers, murmuring all the time soft words of love.

"Oh, my darling, my bonny, bonny darling, speak to me! Will you not speak to me just one little word? Oh, my love, my love, my heart's love! Listen, my darling!"

"And she put her lips to his ear, whispering, and then the awful stillness. Suddenly she lifted her head and scanned his face, and then, glancing round with a wild surprise in her eyes, she cried:

"He will not speak to me! Oh, he will not speak to me!"

"I signed to the men, and as they came forward I went to her and took her hands.

"Oh," she said, with a wall in her voice, "he will not speak to me!"

"The men were sobbing aloud. She looked at them with wide open eyes of wonder.

"Why are they weeping? Will he never speak to me again? Tell me," she insisted gently.

"The words were running through my head.

"There's a land that is fairer than day, and I said them over to her, holding her hands firmly in mine. She gazed at me as if in a dream, and the light slowly faded from her eyes as she said, tearing her hands from mine and waving them toward the mountains and the woods:

"But never more here! Never more here!"

"I believe in heaven and the other life, but I confess that for a moment it all seemed shadowy beside the reality of this warm, bright world, full of life and love. She was very ill for two nights, and when the coffin was closed a new baby lay in the father's arms.

"She slowly came back to life, but there were no more songs. The miners still come about her shop and talk to her baby and bring her their sorrows and troubles; but, though she is always gentle, almost tender, with them, no man ever says 'Ring.' And that is why I am glad she sang last week. It will be good for her and good for them."

"Why does she stay?" I asked.

"Mavor's people wanted her to go to them," he replied.

"They have money—she told me about it—but her heart is in the grave up there under the pines, and, besides, she hopes to do something for the miners, and she will not leave them."

I am afraid I smothered a little impatiently as I said: "Nonsense! Why, with her face and manner and voice she could be anything she liked in Edinburgh or in London."

"And why Edinburgh or London?" he asked coolly.

"Why?" I repeated a little hotly. "You think this is better?"

"Nazareth was good enough for the Lord of Glory," he answered, with a smile none too bright, but it drew my heart to him, and my heart was gone.

"How long will she stay?" I asked.

"Till her work is done," he replied.

"And when will that be?" I asked impatiently.

After years of patient study and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realm of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, 2131 BATES BUILDING, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement that he has surely discovered the elixir of life.

DR. JAMES WILLIAM KIDD.

covered the elixir of life. That he is able to with the aid of a mysterious compound, known only to himself, produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life-giving boon, to cure any and every disease that is known to the human body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim, and the remarkable cures that he is daily effecting seem to bear him out very strongly. His theory which he advances is one of reason and based on sound experience in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free to any one who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure, so there is absolutely no risk to run. Some of the cures cited are very remarkable, and but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and ariels in perfect health. Rheumatism, neuralgia, stomach, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs, or any vital organs are easily overcome in a space of time that is simply marvelous.

Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissues, restores normal nerve power, circulation and a state of perfect health is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike, and equally affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be cured of, and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

President Diaz a Hard Worker.

Among Mexicans the opinion is general that should President Diaz cease the routine of his work he would die. At 8:30 every morning Gen. Diaz goes to his office and works until about 1:30 p. m. At 4:30 he goes back again and scarcely ever leaves before 11, and often not until midnight. His time is spent in the hardest sort of labor and the president would be miserable if he could not carry out the daily program. A journey of any magnitude would seriously break into his personal habits and therefore it is not thought he will ever visit foreign countries. He never tastes intoxicating liquors and when at banquets never partakes of food.
